And:

Let us know you are coming. We'd like to know you are planning to attend, even if you aren't ready to send your deposit. The easiest way to do that is to e-mail Karen at kbbreen@gmail.com.

Critical -- whether you are attending the reunion or not:

Go to www.nouasseur.com. Request passwords if necessary. Log into the Student/Faculty database to make sure Sharon Ray Renno has the correct postal address and an email address for you. This one time only, send corrections/additions to change@nouasseur.com. E-mail may well be the only way we contact you in the future, so it is really important for you to keep that information current.

Reunion Updates: Check the Web site at <http://www.nouasseur.com/reunion.asp> or <https://www.facebook.com/events/665467040243367/> for regular updates on who is coming, where we might gather as we arrive, and any other breaking news. If you are on Facebook, let us know. We'll invite you to join our alumni group there; you'll need to be in it to read updates.

REMEMBER THIS: Many of your siblings and best pals have not kept up with us, even though you have been diligent, right? So get out your address and e-ddress books, start calling and writing. Direct folks to <http://www.nouasseur.com/>. We'd like to make this the best reunion ever, since it will be the last one we do on our own. It's up to you.

ARE YOU ON FACEBOOK? _____ yes _____ no

Sharon Ray Renno is working around the clock to keep us connected through the nouasseur.com web site. If you don't keep her informed, your old friends will not be able to find you. Facebook is helping, but we will no longer expend time, effort and expense to relocate those of you who go missing. It all depends on you.

This email means you won't get another in the mail. No printer? Let Karen know.
